
ENCOUNTERING GOD'S GREATER GLORY

You Haven't Seen Anything Yet: A Generation Marked for Greater Things

By Jerry Kitchell

Matthew 14:28 NKJV

“Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water.”

We're standing on the brink of one of the greatest moves of God this generation has ever seen. There's a deep stirring in the hearts of believers—a fresh hunger for His presence, His power, and His glory like never before. Get ready... something big is on the horizon!

This is a new era where God's children will experience greater—greater power, greater glory, and greater manifestations of God's goodness.

This truly is the finest hour to be alive and serving God Almighty!

What others only dreamed about—this generation is destined to walk in! Past generations only had a glimpse of what God is about to do, but we're stepping into the full manifestation of God's plan!

I believe God is saying, "you haven't seen anything yet!"

When Peter saw Jesus walking on the water and cried out, “Lord, if it's You, command me to come.”

Jesus had a one-word response: “Come.”

Peter quickly stepped out—and began to walk.

Yes, he lost focus and began to sink. But before that, he walked. He did the impossible. He did what no other person had done. He moved in the miraculous. That’s the revelation this generation must grab ahold of in these last days.

The miracle wasn’t that he failed—it’s that he dared to step out in faith and experience the impossible.

While the other disciples stayed in the boat, Peter believed for more. He left the familiar. He responded to the invitation to experience a greater dimension of God’s power.

That same invitation is being extended to the Church today. We’re not called to remain boat-bound in fear or tradition. This is the time for God’s children to walk on the water. The Church must rise up and go where they have never gone before without hesitation.

1 Corinthians 2:9 (NET) declares, “...No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind imagined what God has prepared for those who love Him.”

That verse is not just referring to when we get to Heaven. This is what God has in store for this generation who puts their trust in the Word of God and boldly steps out in faith.

We are the generation that will walk in the greater glory—where the weight of God’s presence saturates and changes atmospheres and transforms lives.

This is a new era where God’s children will experience greater—greater power, greater glory, and greater manifestations of God’s goodness.

We are the generation that will operate in the greater works—carrying out divine assignments with supernatural power and grace. And we are the generation chosen to usher in the greatest harvest in history—a global outpouring of salvation, deliverance, and a move of God unlike anything the world has ever witnessed.

Jesus said in John 14:12: “He who believes in Me... greater works than these shall he do.”

This is not the time for fear to enter your life or to conduct church as usual. The wind and waves may still come, but the call is clear—“Come.” Step out. Trust Him. Walk in all that He’s prepared for us.

This is a call to the bold. A call to the believing. A call to the Church to rise up and take ground.

God is opening doors. Glory is increasing and the harvest is ripe.

And just like Peter, the invitation is in front of us.

As we begin to focus on all that God has provided for us through Christ, we will come to realize that we haven’t seen anything yet.

Take hold of what God has for you and experience more than you could ever think or imagine according to the power that is at work within us. Begin to believe God to go where you have never gone before.

A Sound from Heaven

How Worship Is Ushering In a New Wave of God's Greater Glory

By Jerry Kitchell

A Supernatural Sound Is Rising

A sound is rising—straight from the throne room of Heaven! This isn't just music—it's a supernatural sound sent from Heaven to shake the earth. It's the sound of worship that's anointed and saturated with glory and birthed by the Spirit. God is using worship to draw the hungry, stir dry bones, and launch His people into realms they've never walked in before.

From Message to Manifestation

We're no longer just going through the motions—we're being led by the Spirit to bring Heaven into the earth! Worship is unlocking tangible manifestations of God's glory. Across the nations, the Spirit is releasing a fresh anointing—a new song, birthed in the secret place and loaded with miracle-working power. These aren't ordinary melodies—they're Holy Ghost declarations that carry the weight of God's presence and power to set the captives free!

Worship: A Conduit of Glory

"The earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea."

Habakkuk 2:14

That promise is being fulfilled in this generation.

We were created to worship God—and in this hour, worship is awakening purpose. It's more than a song; it's a supernatural encounter. As we lift our voices, Heaven responds. Apathy breaks. Fire falls. And the glory of God is revealed.

Worship is unlocking tangible manifestations of God's glory.

Atmospheres Are Shifting

God is repositioning the Church to do greater works in these last days! It's no longer about performance—it's about presence. God is setting the stage for the supernatural. From living rooms to stadiums, the glory is being poured out on those who are hungry for more of God.

The atmosphere is being charged, lives are being transformed, and miracles are manifesting! It's not business as usual. This is a move of God—and worship is leading the way.

A New Breed of Worship Leaders

God is raising up a new breed of worshipers — carriers of the glory, not entertainers. These anointed vessels are ushering people into divine visitations where yokes are destroyed, hearts are healed, and destinies are unlocked.

In this era of Greater Glory, worship is not a warm-up—it carries you into the very presence of God.

This Is the Sound of Revival

This is revival. This is the sound of Greater Glory. God is drawing a generation and igniting them through worship—preparing the earth for a move of God unlike anything we've seen before.

You're Invited to Enter In

Don't miss this moment. Don't settle for a form of godliness any longer. Jump in and experience God's best for your lives! Let worship be your access point into the glory realm—where healing flows, fear is broken, and joy overflows. The Spirit of God is calling you deeper.

The Sound Has Been Released

Heaven has responded to the cry of hungry hearts. The sound from Heaven is here. The Greater Glory is now. Lift your hands. Lift your voice. Step into the glory—and begin to encounter God by His Spirit.

Don't miss out on what God is doing in this generation.

God Goes With the Goers: Taking the Fire of God to This Generation

By Jerry Kitchell

There's something stirring in the realm of the Spirit. If you're paying attention, you can sense it. We're not in just another season—we're in a supernatural shift. And it's not just for a few preachers or a handful of missionaries—it's for the Body of Christ. Every believer.

God has been setting the stage for this moment—and now, the signs are clear: it's time to respond to His calling.

In Acts 2:19, Peter stood up on the day of Pentecost, full of the Holy Spirit, and declared that the Spirit of God was doing something new. Get ready, I am about to do something that has never been done before:

"I will show wonders in heaven above and signs in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke."

He was quoting the prophet Joel, but Peter didn't say it was coming someday—he said this is that. That same word echoes into our generation. God is releasing a wave of miracles, signs, and wonders that will ignite the earth on fire for God.

Those signs—blood, fire, and vapor of smoke—are not just poetic pictures. They are prophetic signs that point to a victorious Church alive with the power of the Holy Spirit.

The blood speaks of redemption. It's the foundation. Everything we have access to in Christ begins with the blood. It washes, it justifies, and it gives us the boldness to stand and speak for God.

Then there's the fire. That's the power of the Holy Spirit. Not a flicker, but a flame.

Not a campfire to warm our toes—but a consuming fire that purifies, empowers, and sets us ablaze for the mission. That fire didn't fade after the Upper Room—it's still falling on hearts that are hungry.

And what about the vapor of smoke? That's the manifested glory of God. In the Old Testament, it filled the tabernacle until the priests couldn't even stand to minister. In our day it dwells in the hearts of born-again believers. As believers go, the glory is manifesting and filling churches, homes, streets—anywhere people make room for His presence.

That cloud—the visible, tangible glory—isn't a thing of the past. It's a reality for right now.

The truth is, we're not just reading Acts 2—we're living in it. This is that. The same Spirit, the same signs, the same fire and glory!

But here's the key: these manifestations are for the goers. As the Church goes, miracles, signs, and wonders follow. God has never manifested His glory to those who are idle or stationary. He's always moved with people who believed Him and moved with Him. Whether it was Abraham, Moses, Paul, or the early Church—every great move of God was sparked by someone willing to go.

And I believe with every fiber of my being—this generation is being stirred to shake nations and shift atmospheres by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The signs aren't just around us—they're upon us. The blood still speaks. The fire still falls. The cloud is rising again.

And just as Peter declared, wonders in the heavens above are beginning to align with signs in the earth beneath. Heaven is making it clear—God is doing something big, and He's looking for a people who are willing to trust Him for big things this year.

The Head of the Church—Jesus Christ—has entrusted this generation with a message of the greater glory and the grace to fulfill their calling in this last hour. We're not waiting for another move—we are the move. This is the final hour, and the urgency of Heaven is clear. Time is short, and the harvest is ripe. It's not a moment to be waiting on God—it's a moment to advance and boldly preach the gospel.

The Spirit has been poured out. The call has been given. Now it's time for every believer to arise, take their place, and move in step with God's plan for this generation.
